

Donor Home Page

default page on start up is an add-account page Which shows all the accounts that you have linked already, and an option at the bottom to add another

The add another asks for their username and password and server address for (kardia?) and then saves those credentials on the app.

tap and hold
bring up options menu for deleting, etc.

